

GUARDSMAN OUSTED FROM SERVICE FOR BEING UNAMERICAN

Naturalized German, Up For Commission In Militia, Would Not Fight Against Fatherland

GENERAL JOHNSON ORDERS HIS IMMEDIATE DISCHARGE

There Is No Place In National Guard For Such Men, Says Adjutant-General

Company D, First Infantry, N. G. H., will lose Martin Grune, an efficient lance corporal. He was discharged from the service without ceremony last night, because, during the recent crisis between the United States and Germany, he informed Capt. Gustav E. Schaefer, his commanding officer, that should the United States and Germany be forced into war, he would not take up arms against Germany.

Grune, who has had an excellent reputation as a citizen soldier, was about to take a competitive examination for the vacancy in his company for second lieutenant, and his statement that no matter what might come he would not align himself with the United States against the Kaiser placed him in a position of embarrassment.

Captain Schaefer took several days to think the matter over and finally, a day or so after the examination which was held a week ago last Sunday, laid the whole affair before Colonel Lincoln, the commander of the regiment and the regular army inspector-instructor of the guard.

Examination Papers Barred
Colonel Lincoln realized that such a sentiment as expressed by Grune would bar anyone from loyally taking the oath of office in the national guard. He directed that the papers prepared by Grune be dropped from the contest, until such time as the whole matter could be submitted for final decision to Brig. Gen. Samuel I. Johnson, adjutant general of the Territory.

This was done yesterday, and General Johnson acted promptly. As soon as Grune showed up for drill last night with Company D, he was called into the adjutant-general's office, where Captain Schaefer, Colonel Lincoln and General Johnson had been in conference over the matter, and asked for a plain statement of his feelings.

"I have learned," said General Johnson, "that just before taking your examination for a commission in the guard, you informed your commanding officer that you could under no circumstances fight against Germany. This was at a time when there seemed a possibility that you might be called up to do so. What about it? Do you feel that way now?"

Grune Admits Disloyalty
"Yes, sir," said Grune, his face looking pale, and his mouth twitching a little. "I do feel just that way. I told Captain Schaefer that I felt it would be impossible for me to fight against Germany in case the United States went to war with her. Any other country, but not Germany."

"Ah!" ejaculated the adjutant general. "But don't you know that you have taken an oath—two solemn oaths, indeed, for you have taken out your first papers as an American citizen—to 'defend the United States against all enemies whosoever.' You swore to that when you enlisted in the guard. You swore to it when you relinquished your status as a German subject and became an American citizen. Furthermore, you swore when you took out your first papers to 'defend the United States against all enemies, whosoever, and especially against Wilhelm II, Emperor of Germany.' Don't you know that?"

"Yes, sir," murmured Grune.
"Why did you take out your papers then?" asked General Johnson. "Why did you enlist in the guard if you felt that way?"

Will Not 'Accept' America
"At the time I took out my papers I did not believe that the United States and my country would ever come to war. I was willing to accept the United States as my country."

Then for the first time Colonel Lincoln spoke.
"Do you consider that you conferred a favor on the United States by becoming a citizen of this country, or that the country conferred a favor on you by allowing you to assume that citizenship?"

"I was the favored party," answered Grune.
"I am sorry," interrupted General Johnson. "You have been a good soldier, Grune, but a man who feels as you do has no business to change his citizenship, and he certainly has no business in the national guard of any country save his own. Your commanding officer has recommended that you be honorably discharged from the guard. Colonel Lincoln will, I am sure, approve that recommendation. That is all."

In speaking of the affair afterward General Johnson said:
"A point I wished to emphasize is that no man can serve two masters. If he enters the militia as an American citizen it is to the United States that he owes his first duty, no matter where he may have been born. We are not preparing for war with any country, but we are trying to get ready to meet any emergency. I should have noted in the same manner had Corporal Grune been an Englishman, a Frenchman or a Russian. We want none but Americans."

SMALL GAMBLERS AND A DOPE CASE

Fines Imposed For Pool, Poker, Che-fa and Use of Opium

In the police court yesterday morning P. Manlapit, a Filipino interpreter for Attorney William J. Sheldon, and A. Arce, were found guilty of playing pool for money, and fined five dollars and costs by Judge Monismith. Attorney Sheldon, who appeared for the defendants, declared that the money which was testified to as being on the table as the stakes played for by the two men, was not gambling money, but the payment to the proprietor of the pool hall for the game played. He was charged with conducting a gambling game, in the establishment in which Manlapit and Arce were arrested, was discharged.

C. Mitchell, C. M. King and Manuel Santos, who it was alleged were playing pool, were found guilty of the charge and fined fifteen dollars and costs each.

Arrested with an array of che-fa tickets in their possession, Ah Chun and Pipi, a Hawaiian, were fined twenty-five dollars and costs, for carrying the honors of the same times lucky word.

Ah Quong, a Chinese, who was arrested in an opium joint in Chinatown while in the act of indulging in a little smoke, appeared before his honor, and after the old plea "I no can live with out," he was fined twenty dollars and costs.

Y. Arita, charged with committing a criminal assault upon two young Japanese girls, his former wards, had his case set over for one month.

For driving an automobile ahead of a street car on King street near Fort when passengers were embarking, or alighting, N. Stecher was fined five dollars and costs.

KAUAI PEOPLE WANT BROWNS REINSTATED

Would Like Them Back At Waimaea School

(Mail Special to The Advertiser.)
LIHUE, June 6.—Matters have not as yet adjusted themselves in regard to the reappointment of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Brown as teachers at the Waimaea School. The petition to Governor Pinkham has been signed by practically all the prominent Kauai people.

The Garden Island, this week, published a letter from one of the Waimaea school teachers stating that the assertion, "all of the teachers, with the possible exception of two, would be glad to see them go," was incorrect and that seven out of ten teachers of the school asked for the reappointment of Mr. and Mrs. Brown.

A committee called upon Commissioner Eric Knudsen, but received little satisfaction. The petition states clearly that those signing it do not uphold any insubordination on the part of the teachers, but that they desire the reappointment of Mr. and Mrs. Brown, whose work has proved of value to the community.

The citizens who have taken up the matter probably will not be satisfied until definite opportunity is given to Mr. and Mrs. Brown to carry on their work somewhere in the Territory, but preferably on Kauai.

NAWILIWILI WHARF EXTENSION BID MADE

Plans For Dredging Portion of Kahului Harbor Approved

The board of harbor commissioners held a meeting yesterday afternoon in the offices of the public works department, with Chairman Forbes presiding, and Commissioners McClellan and Church also present. There was little new business to come before the board.

On the Nawiliwili wharf extension contract there was only one bid, that of the Lord Young company, for $3437. Action was deferred.

Plans for the dredging of a portion of Kahului harbor were approved, and it was decided to call for bids on a contract for the work.

Purchasing Agent Wescott is busy getting lists of supplies necessary for the coming six months from the different departments of the municipality. The contracts under which the purchasing has been done for the past six months are about to expire and the new contracts will be let as soon as the lists are ready. The proposition to advertise on the Coast for the supplies as well as here, is being considered and as the prices are bound to be higher than they were at the beginning of the year, it is thought that one or two Coast firms bidding may get the city a shade the better of things when quantities are ordered.

In the general, no matter what they may have been before they came here. If a man feels that his allegiance to the land of his birth is too strong to permit him to struggle against it for his adopted land, then he has no business adopting another land.

ACTIVITY RESUMES IN HAWAII STOCKS

Directors of Mineral Products Company Hear Report On Properties In California

With the resumption of strong trading in raw sugars in New York, and influenced by the reports of higher prices in July futures, activity again developed on the local stock exchange yesterday.

Between boards and at the session Oahu was the leader, going up 43 to 43.50 on sales of 1000 shares. Ewa sold off a quarter; Onomes, Olan, Waiaina, McBryde and Pioneer sold in small lots without change, but ten H. C. & S. Co. dropped $1 to 53—San Carlos is still on the rise, 410 shares changing owners at 164.

On the announcement by Kekaha directors of a $6 extra, payable with the regular $2 monthly dividend, on July 1, asking price for this stock rose to 310 from last sale value at 172.5.

Engels Copper was quoted on the curb at $2.00 and Mountain King at 95 cents bid.

At a meeting of Mineral Product directors yesterday John Watt made an oral report on his recent inspection of the properties. He made two points, one favorable and the other unfavorable. The volume of mineral deposits on the lands owned by the company is larger than he had been led to expect. There has been a good deal of development work done in the way of driving tunnels and cross-cuts and opening up new faces, and these give an idea of the greater size of the ore bodies.

The other point, Mr. Watt made was that labor conditions are becoming unsettled. The whole Pacific Coast is seething with a spirit of unrest, due to the scarcity of laborers and the high wages paid especially to employees in the copper mines of California. There are more itinerant laborers than ever before, and this does not lead to efficiency. The mines that can pay the highest wages get the best workers and others not so prosperous must either take what they can get, or raise their own schedule.

He gave it as his personal judgment that the railroad cannot possibly be completed by July 1, but there has been no word from the management at the mines on this subject. On May 30, rails had been laid nine miles and a sufficient quantity of rails and other supplies were on the ground to finish the entire line.

KAUAI HIGH SCHOOL FACULTY IS CHOSEN

(Mail Special to The Advertiser.)
LIHUE, June 6.—Announcement was made today concerning the appointment of the high school faculty for the following year. William C. Avery, who has been the principal for the two years of the high school's existence, will carry on the work again and F. E. McCall also will return to have charge of the commercial work.

The other teachers, Miss Katherine McIntyre, Miss Elenna Barker and Miss Katherine Ommann, have given up their positions and will be succeeded by Miss Dorothy E. Stendel, Miss Majorie Wood and Miss Gertrude Johnson. Another teacher later will be appointed for the lower grade position.

The work undoubtedly will advance during the next year, as it has during the past two years. High school teachers' cottages probably will be forthcoming and various other improvements are planned.

Miss Helen Schimmling has been transferred from Kolon government school to the Normal school and Miss Marion Hastie Elele will be in Lihue next year.

CONTRACT FOR BUDDHIST TEMPLE HAS BEEN AWARDED

L. Matsumoto, low bidder on the Buddhist Temple to be erected in upper Fort street, has been awarded the contract for the work. Matsumoto bid $39,550 for the work and was $15,000 below the next bidder.

PORTLAND CROWDED FOR ROSE FESTIVAL

Gorgeous Display of Blooms Attracts Throng of Thousands To Coast City

(By Associated Press.)
PORTLAND, Oregon, June 7.—Portland's tenth annual Rose Festival was formally opened today with a gorgeous display of roses and numerous events to attract the crowds that thronged the streets.

The city was awakened by the music of brass bands, musicians with stringed instruments and vocalists singing in the streets and plazas.

The first parade was held this morning when over 10,000 school children of Portland marched in a kaleidoscope of color. The main feature of this "Human Rainbow" parade was a historical pageant, representing the big events of American history. Other children in the line executed dances and intricate stunts, one of the most striking of which was the rose dance, "Dedicate River Highway."

The program this afternoon was given over to the dedication of the Columbia River Highway at Multnomah Falls. Immense crowds went to the scene in automobiles and special trains. The open space in front of the famous falls was packed with machines and crowds climbed the mountains and spread to the nearby trails for a view of the ceremonies.

The city today was a riot of color. Practically every building in the business section was decorated with banners and streamers. Bunches of evergreen and blossoms in endless lines swung overhead across the main thoroughfares. Everywhere the rose was predominant in the decorations.

Floral Parade Today
Tomorrow will bring the floral parade, one of the chief attractions of the festival. Friday night the festival will end with the United States carnival. Following the opening of the festival, thousands of hands began the decoration of floats for the annual floral parade tomorrow.

The Rosarians estimated that more than 6,000,000 roses will be on review tomorrow, in addition to thousands of other flowers. Society will have a prominent place in the pageant. The Portland Hunt Club, automobile and motorcycle clubs, civic bodies and automobile and vehicle owners in general will be represented.

Songfests Everywhere
One of the features of the Rose Festival which attracted attention today was the singing of choruses composed of hundreds of voices in the public parks and plazas. These songfests, in combination with band and stringed orchestra concerts, are being held almost continuously from early morning until late at night.

Many thousand visitors viewed the indoor exhibition of the Portland Rose Society, which was opened today with more than 800,000 choice blooms on display. A number of newly developed varieties were shown for the first time.

KAUAI GUARD OFFICERS TAKE STIFF EXAMINATION

Examinations of the staff and line officers of the Fourth Infantry, National Guard of Kauai, were held last Sunday at Lihue, and those who took the examinations are now anxiously awaiting the result of an inspection of their papers, which is to be made by a board here. Colonel Broadbent, Major Rice, Lieutenant Colonel Timmons, Major McBryde and Major Baldwin conducted the examinations. The papers were sent from headquarters in Honolulu in sealed envelopes. Some of the officers, being new in the work, are said to have found the test a difficult one, and those who failed to make the required seventy-five per cent may be given another chance.

HUSTACE-PECK COMPANY UNDER NEW MANAGEMENT

Charles H. Atherton has purchased a control of the Hustace-Peck Company from Frank Hustace and W. H. Smith. It is understood that A. F. Clark will assume the management. The price paid for the stock held by Hustace and Smith is said to have been between $40,000 and $50,000.

SWIMMING MEET MAY BE CANCELED

A. A. U. Meet To Consider the Secession of Kahanamoku From Amateurs

At a meeting of the local branch of the Amateur Athletic Union held yesterday afternoon in the office of W. T. Rawlins, the matter of the proposed visit to Honolulu of Perry McGillivray, Ludy Langer, H. Vollmer and E. Cann, the crack mainland swimmers, was taken up. Nothing definite was done and the meeting adjourned until half-past three o'clock this afternoon.

It had been the intention of the A. A. U. to stage a big swimming meet here next month, at which the open water national championships recently granted to Hawaii would have been features of a three nights' program.

The reported decision of Duke Kahanamoku Jr., to turn professional, upsets the plans of the A. A. U., however, for it was considered improbable that the quartet of athletes named would come to Hawaii if they learned that the island champion had signed a professional contract.

Duke was not present at yesterday's meeting, although an invitation to be present had been addressed to him as follows:

"Dear Sir:—As you are aware, the 100 yards national championship for open water has been awarded to Hawaii—the meet to take place in July. Furthermore, in your presence at Chicago, arrangements were made by Mr. Rawlins for the national champions to come to Honolulu to take part in that meet and also in 220 yards and 500 yards open water contests, competing against you and any others who would wish to enter. Since your return to Hawaii, you know that our association has been preparing to finance the meet and arrange to bring from the mainland the champions for these distances. The object of our obtaining the meet was to meet with you and your associates, and to defend the championship of the Islands."

"We have heard, however, in the public press that, without acquainting any of our officers with the facts—although you well knew we were arranging this meet and depending upon your competing therein—you have signed a contract with a man named Benjamin to become a professional. The officers of our association have had various conversations with you, but have been unable to obtain any information as to the terms of this contract so that we can judge whether or not it renders you ineligible to take part in this meet."

A meeting of the Board of Managers of the Hawaiian Association of the A. A. U. to be held at the office of William F. Rawlins at four o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, June 7, and bring with you any writing, contract or agreement you have with Mr. Benjamin? Our association does not question in any way your right to become a professional, if you so desire; but we think that in fairness to us and in view of the fact that the association has stood behind you through your entire career, and also in view of the fact that we have arranged this meet with your knowledge primarily that you might compete with these champions in open water and have arranged to incur an expense of over $2000 to carry on the meet successfully, you should acquaint us fully with the terms of your arrangement with Mr. Benjamin."

Duke Signs His Terms
At the meeting John Soper said that he had secured from Kahanamoku a copy of his agreement with R. H. Benjamin, which reads as follows:

"To R. H. Benjamin, Young Hotel, Honolulu, T. H.
"Dear Sir:—I am willing to enter into professional business under the management of yourself and Mr. William F. Hoppe for the period of one, two or three years on condition that I receive one-half of the money I am booked for (less expenses), and my minimum salary to be two hundred and fifty dollars weekly."

"I will leave the management entirely into your hands and will be prepared to begin operations when called upon and on receipt of my full transportation and traveling expenses."

(Sgd) "DUKE P. KAHANAMOKU,"
Girls Swim June 17

The A. A. U. have come to the conclusion that there is nothing in the swimming in the July tournament, but it is feared that if the mainland swimmers are brought here, Duke, according to his agreement, may have to go to the Coast, without staying for the championship meet, which would mean that the $2000 expended to bring the swimmers to Honolulu would result in a heavy loss being sustained.

It was decided to hold the open swimming races at 50 and 100 yards, for girls, in the naval ship, June 17.
Present at the meeting were: Lorrin Andrews, John Soper, Glenn Jackson, A. T. Rawlins and A. T. Longley.

: Whip and Spur:

There were more miles worked yesterday than the old track has seen for many a day.

Lieut. J. C. Martin of the First Field Artillery, will ride Arise in the six furlong race for amateur riders.

Arthur Rice will ride Skyraiser in the gentlemen's race on the first day, and Ladylike in a similar event on the second day.

R. Duchalsky has the track in first-chop order, and records may be expected to go by the board on Saturday and Monday.

Kentucky John says that the glorious uncertainty of racing will be as much in evidence at the coming meeting as it has ever been.

The attention of the auto-loving populace will be called to the scandalous conditions of Kalakaua avenue, going to and from the races.

Jockey F. E. Niehoff, a well-known mainland jockey, is in town. He has ridden since the close of Emeryville. He can do 118 pounds easily.

E. N. G. Jackson will have sole charge of the distribution of the programs and will see to it that the "correct cards" are circulated thoroughly and early.

Joe Reddy was among those present at the track yesterday. He and Jerry Broderick met each other and talked over old times and the horses they have lost money on.

George Richardson, who once owned Lazell, and who is an enthusiastic turfman, is an arrival from Lihue. George may take a hand in the game himself before very long.

Among those who have already secured boxes and auto space for the race meet are: Lorrin Andrews, J. K. Clarke, W. H. Smith, Charles Stillman, Judge Frank Andrade, N. Marquez, Dr. George Herbert, John O'Dowda, Lionel Hart, F. W. Macfarlane, R. B. Booth, W. A. Dickson, F. L. Waldron, R. W. Atkinson, E. F. Bishop, George Beckley, George P. Cooke, C. W. C. ## WILL ROW RACES AT PEARL HARBOR

At a meeting of the Hawaiian Rowing Association, held last night, at the Myrtle Boat Club, it was decided to have boat races under the auspices of the association, at Pearl Harbor on the Fourth of July.

Ten or Twelve years ago there used to be rowing races at Pearl Harbor every Fourth of July, and they were always attended by big crowds.

The Hilo Regatta program will be proceeded with as outlined, and there will be absolutely no conflict between the two events.

There will be two barge races, two small races and a boys' race, the age limit for which has not yet been set, on the Fourth.

The local clubs will send their best boats and their best rowers to Hilo to compete in their championship race, but there will be plenty of men and material to give Honoluluans lots of first-class sport in the village by the lochs.

An excursion train will be run from Honolulu to Pearl Harbor.
One barge will be forwarded to Hilo by the next Mauna Kea, and three others will go up on the excursion steamer.
